About our School

Severndale Academy was established in September 1995 following the reorganisation of provision for children with special educational needs in Shropshire. In September 2008, a large scale development was completed at the site on the Monkmoor Campus. In September 2011 a second provision based at Mary Webb School and Science College opened to cater for secondary aged pupils with moderate learning difficulties. In November 2014 our Futures provision in conjunction with Shrewsbury College providing work related learning for the students.

Our children are amazing and a pleasure to work with, we pride ourselves on the relationships at staff level but especially with our children and their families. Our staff are rewarded every day knowing that they are making a difference to the young people's lives, their families and the community. Our young people are aged 2.5 to 25 and have a range of learning difficulties. These include moderate, severe, complex and profound learning difficulties, those with autism, complex medical conditions and physical and mobility difficulties.

Our curriculum drives how our school works and we also use a range of models to provide our children with active learning through motivating, exciting activities. We encourage children to make choices, solve problems, develop independence and most importantly, have fun!

To enable this high level of education and create an environment for our students that we are proud of we benefit from the most amazing staff. Every member of staff is valued for the role they have, no position is more important than another and it is recognised at all times that the staff need each other for the school to run effectively for the children. Our highly trained internal staffing is complemented by significant external specialist support such as Health professionals, speech and language therapist and physiotherapists.

Our school offers a truly rewarding career, roles with progression and high-level training. Our children and young people make working at Severndale satisfying and gratifying. To find out more about our school please visit our website: Severndale Academy
